

EDGE OF AMAZING

A Virtual Health And Well-being Summit

Presented by:

Join us at the 2022 Edge of Amazing, as we explore The Power of Relationships: bridging the gap between practice and policy.

Wednesday, October 5, 2022

A virtual event | 9 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

$39/$59 registration | Scholarships Available

Register today at: edgeofamazing.org

Keynotes

JUST Relationships: Transformational Practices for Understanding & Resilience

Nanci Luna Jiménez, CPF/M: exploring transformational and revolutionary relationships dedicated to ending racism and healing ourselves and our communities

Panel Discussion of Local Equity & Well-being Leaders

Exploring the Power and Practice of Trusted Relationships in Creating Equitable, Healthy and Inclusive Communities. With Mark Wakai, Liz Baxter, Shari Dworkin, Douglas Raiford, and Karina Gasperin

2022 Snohomish County State of Well-being Report

Revealing the results of the 7th Annual Health & Well-being Monitor™ for Snohomish County

Workshops

NEW IN 2022!

Full Workshop Previews

New opportunity to preview full workshop recordings prior to Edge of Amazing on Oct 5th, with early access for community and all EOA registrants.

2022 Workshops include:

- ✔ Promoting Financial Security, Health and Well-being.
- ✔ Youth Mental Health
- ✔ Inequities of Medical Crowdfunding
- ✔ Climate Change & Well-being
- ✔ Bringing Care to the Community

Sign up to view workshops as they are released! Visit edgeofamazing.org to learn more.

Emcee: Tonya M. Drake, Ph.D.,
Regional Vice President, Northwest
Chancellor, WGU Washington

